

Lesson 4

My Own True Family

1a. Stag

B. Two

C. Tree

2. True

The old woman had the speaker's secret inside her little bag

B. False

The speaker didn't blink an eye when the oak trees were chopped and torn down

C. False

The speaker came out of the oak wood but his walk was that of a human but his heart was like that of a tree

3a. When the old woman opened up her little bag to show the speaker's secret then the poet came twice awake

B. False

The speaker didn't blink an eye when the oak trees were chopped and torn down

C. False

The speaker came out of the oak wood but his walk was that of a human but his heart was like that of a tree

3a. When the old woman opened up her little bag to show the speaker's secret then the poet came twice awake

B. If the poet failed to make the promise then the oak trees will wrinkle over him and he would die or it would kill him

C. It was the dream that altered the poet

Grammar

A. Rahul asked Dipa if she would go to the school that day

B. Rita requested Ayesha to give her a glass of water

C. The old man wished that the little girl might be happy

