

● Answer the following questions :

1. How did the narrator come to know that the girl wore slippers ?

Ans. _____

2. Why did the girl get startled on hearing the narrator's voice ?

Ans. _____

3. What do people with good eyesight fail to see ?

Ans. _____

4. What is the narrator's opinion about aunts ?

Ans. _____

5. Why was the narrator lucky according to the girl ?

Ans. _____

6. What mistake did the narrator commit ?

Ans. _____

7. What was the safe remark from the narrator ?

Ans. _____

8. How did the narrator praise the girl ?

Ans. _____

9. What caused the girl to laugh pleasantly ?

Ans. _____

10. What was the girl tired of ?

Ans. _____

11. How was the voice of the girl ?

Ans. _____

12. Where was the girl going ?

Ans. _____

13. Where was the narrator going ?

Ans. _____

14. Why did the new passenger apologize to the narrator ?

Ans. _____

15. What was the game the narrator wanted to play once again ?

Ans. _____

16. Why were the eyes of the girl useless ?

Ans.

17. What did the narrator ask the new fellow-passenger ?

Ans.

18. What did the new fellow-passenger observe about the girl ?

Ans.

19. Why did the narrator want to raise his hand to touch her hair ?

Ans.

20. Why was the world shut out again ?

Ans.

21. Why did the narrator feel at the thought of laughter ?

Ans.

22. Why was the remark from the narrator about the girl safe ?

Ans.

23. How did the girl react at the narrator's remark ?

Ans.

24. What is the difference between a 'pretty face' and an 'interesting face' ?

Ans.

25. Did the narrator have a permanent disability ?

Ans.

26. Why was the narrator eager to hide his blindness ?

Ans.

27. What precaution did the narrator take to hide his blindness ?

Ans.

28. 'Then I made a mistake.' —Why did he call it a mistake ?

Ans.

29. How does people with good eye sight behave ?

Ans.

30. Who was the girl supposed to meet at the Saharanpur station ?

Ans.

31. Why did the narrator express his wish to stop himself from getting too familiar with the girl ?

Ans.

32. How did the narrator describe the view outside the window to the girl?

Ans. _____

33. What according to the girl happens always?

Ans. _____

34. Which is the best time for going to Mussoorie?

Ans. _____

35. How was the sun in Mussoorie at that time of the year?

Ans. _____

36. How can one enjoy the hill at night?

Ans. _____

37. How did the narrator become sure that the girl had not noticed his blindness?

Ans. _____

38. What cannot be resisted by girls?

Ans. _____

39. What type of text is 'The Eyes Have It'?

Ans. _____

40. Who is the author of 'The Eyes Have It'?

Ans. _____

41. What is the name of Ruskin Bond's short story collection from where the story is taken?

Ans. _____

42. Upto which station did the narrator have the compartment to himself?

Ans. _____

43. Who gave the girl detailed instructions for the journey?

Ans. _____

44. What kind of limitation did the narrator's eyes have regarding sensitivity at that time?

Ans. _____

45. What did the narrator like about the girl?

Ans. _____

46. 'I didn't know anyone else was here'—What caused the girl to exclaim so?

Ans. _____

47. How does people with no or little eyesight behave ?

Ans. _____

48. What did the narrator know about the forests near Dehra ?

Ans. _____

49. What did the girl observe about the narrator ?

Ans. _____

50. Why did the girl prefer a short journey ?

Ans. _____

51. Why was the narrator prepared to sit with the girl for any lenth of time ?

Ans. _____

52. When did the girl get up to collect her things ?

Ans. _____

53. 'You have an interesting face' — Why did the narrator make such a comment ?

Ans. _____

54. What did people usually tell the girl about her face ?

Ans. _____

55. What change did the narrator observe in the engine and the carriage wheels as the train approached the station ?

Ans. _____

56. What helped the narrator to realize that the train has reached Saharanpur station ?

Ans. _____

57. What was tanzalizing for the narrator ?

Ans. _____

58. Why was the narrator so curious about the hair style of the girl ?

Ans. _____

59. What lingered inside the compartment after the girl left ?

Ans. _____

60. What could have been a fascinating game for the narrator ?

Ans. _____

61. 'You must be disappointed'—Who said this to whom and why ?

Ans. _____