

Bhola Grandpa

i) Where from was Bhola Grandpa returning?

One evening Bhola Grandpa was returning from the weekly market.

ii) What did he hear?

Suddenly at a distance of about five yards behind him, he heard the growl of a Royal Bengal Tiger.

iii) What did he do after finding the bright gaze?

Bhola Grandpa turned and found the bright gaze of the tiger on his face. He instantly climbed up a ~~low~~ nearby tree.

iv) What did the tiger do after that?

The tiger roared and circled the tree about a hundred times.

v) How was the forest with nightfall?

With nightfall the forest grew dark & silent.

vi) What did the Bhola Grandpa hear at night?

Bhola Grandpa could hear the tiger beating its tail on the dry leaves. Hours passed.

i) Who is the poet of the poem?
John Clare.

ii) What does the poet love to see?
The poet loves to see the cottage smoke curl upwards through the naked trees.

iii) Where do the pigeons nestle?
The pigeons nestled round the cot.

iv) What is the cock doing?
The cock is crowing upon the dunghill.

v) Where & how do the acrows fall?
The acrows near the old crow's nest falls pattering down the tree.

vi) What do the grunting pigs do?
The grunting pigs scramble & hurry towards the acrows.

vii) Where from does the feather fall on the stubble leaf?

The feather from the raven's breast falls on the stubble leaf.

ALL SUMMER IN A DAY

i) What was compared to a hurricane?

The continuous rainfall was compared to a hurricane.

ii) How immense was the silence?

The silence was so immense one would feel as if the ears had been stuffed.

iii) When did the smell of silent world reach the children?

The smell of silent world reached the children when the sun came out.

iv) What happened after coming out of the smell?

The sun came out after that the coming out of smell and the children were very happy as they finally saw the sun after such a long wait.

HIS FIRST FLIGHT

i) What did he pretend on the brink of the ledge?

The young seagull stood on one leg with the other leg hidden under his wing. Closing one eye and then the other, he pretended to be falling asleep.

ii) What were his brother & sister doing?

<sup>The young seagull's</sup>
His brother & sisters were lying on the plateau. They were dozing with their heads sunk into their wings.

iii) What was his mother doing?

The young seagull's mother was the only one who was looking at him. She was standing on a little high hump on the plateau eating a piece of fish.

iv) What maddened him?

The young seagull was hungry as she was starving, hence the sight of the food maddened him.

i) Why did Tom grow hopeful?

Tom ~~found~~ thought that he had found symptoms of stomach trouble but the symptoms soon grew feeble & wholly went away.

ii) What did he discover suddenly?

Suddenly Tom discovered that one of his upper front teeth was loose.

iii) Why was he reluctant to tell Aunt Polly about his tooth?

Tom was reluctant to tell Aunt Polly about his tooth because it ~~grew to~~ occurred to him that if Aunt Polly was to know she would surely pull it out & that would hurt.

iv) What did he hear from a doctor?

Tom heard from a doctor that a certain ailment could lay up a patient for three days & make him lose a finger.

i) Write down the name of the poet?
Emily Jane Bronte

ii) What time of the day was it?
It was evening.

iii) What is the poet watching?
The poet is watching the fall of the cloudy evening.

iv) How was the day?
The day was covered with mist after a day of rain.

v) What do the mist cover?
The mist covers the horizon's mountain chain.